LEITER CLEARS OFF OLD DEBTS

Has Made Nearly $3,000,000 Since His Disastrous Wheat Deal, All of Which Has Gone to His Creditors.

That Joseph Leiter has almost completely wiped out the $3,000.000 indeut-edness that rested upon him after the collapse of his scusational wheat deal has come to light through his dealai of the report that he had been seriously crippled in the recent slump in the stock market.

· Not many young men have the en-ergy, the business acumen and the pluck to bear up under such a stag-gering load of debt and by dogged perseverance clear it away. Statistics show that not one man in fifty thousand in the United States makes a million dollars in his lifetime; yet Mr. Leiter has made $3,000,000 since 1897, or at the rate of $500,000 a year.

Cotton, wheat, oil, milk, corn, stocks all have yielded a golden hoard to his wizard touch. His successes have been quietly achieved. He had more publicity than he desired as a result of his spectacular attempt to corner the wheat market. Anyhow, the money wasn't for himself, but for his credit-tors, and so there was no use making a splurge about it.

It was known that Mr. Leiter had been "long" on several lines of securi-ties that have suffered greatly in the recent slump, and from some unknown source the report gained currency that he had been squeezed to the point of bankruptcy. At his home, No. 15 Bast Thirty-third street, to-day Mr. Leiter spoke freely of his financial against me," said Mr. Leiter. "There is no use denying the hard fact that I have been hit in the stock murket in the recent siump, but I have had harder raps in my time and have managed to pull out without going to the wals.

"Doubtless it will be news to a great many people to hear that I am just about on my innancial feet again after the drubbing I got in the wheat deal in Chicago a few years ago. I woke up one fine deay to find that I owed something, more than $3,000,001. Since that time I have worked with the one purpose of paying every cent I owed, and am glad to say that I am just now clearing up the fag ends of that disastrous wheat deal. A few months more and I shail have a clean bill of financial health.

"Despite reports to the contrary my father and I are in the closest business relations, and I am glad to say that he still has the utmost confidence in my business integrity and ability. I have charge of a good share of his business, and leave for Chicago in a few days to look after some of our joint interests there. I am a hard worker—twelve hours a day is about my average. I am a believer in progress, and that at a rapid rate. We have no pockets in our shrouds, and so it is necessary for us to hustle here below and try to do something worth while to the world. My sole aim is to make progress along lines that will give work to as many as possible. If I can succeed in making two blades of grass grow where only one has grown I think I am not working without a purpose."

SAILOR'S LEG WORTH $1,800.

Captain Failed to Put Into Port When Limb Was Broken. HONOLULU, Oct. 16,-United States

HONOLULU, Oct. 16.—United States District Judge Bates has awarded $1,800 damages to Julius Schirrmacher, a sailor, against the ship Erskine M. Phelps on account of a broken leg.
The sailor's feg was accidentally fractured when the ship was off Cape Horn, and the Court decided that the captain was guilty of negligence in not putting in at the nearest port where surgical treatment could have been obtained.
Both the Falkland Islands and Valparaiso were available for this purpose.

Smith was a witness in a case in the police court in Bayonne, and his extreme youth caused a pompous attorney to ask him it he knew the nature of an oath.

"My boy." said the lawyer, "do you know what will happen to you if you do not tell the trush?

"Sure," said George Smith, as his eyes opened in surprise at the question and his lip curied surcastically as he considered the ignorance of a lawyer who would weather time asking such fool questions.
